VAMOSED.—A hard looking specimen, named Mary McDonald, while waiting for trial in the Police Court yesterday, quietly walked out of the Court and managed to escape.

OWNER WANTED.—An owner is wanted for a lady's gold watch, with a gentleman's gold vest chain attached. It can be seen at the Police Office, and is supposed to have been stolen, as it was found in the possession of a professional thief.

COMMITTED.—The telegraph operator, James M. Peck, charged with passing fraudulent bank bills, whose arrest we noted yesterday, was examined before Justices Milliken and King, and fully committed for trial in default of $300 bail.

CHICAGO CRICKET CLUB.—The return match between the Chicago Club and the E. I. Tinkham Club will be played on Monday next, 22d June. Ground to be designated, of which due notice will be given.
S. SIMMONS, Secy.

BURGLARY IN WABASH AVENUE.—On yesterday morning, between two and three o'clock, the dwelling of Mr. H. N. Heald, corner of Wabash avenue and Monroe street, was entered by forcing a second story window, and a breast-pin, gold locket and a wallet containing about $20 were carried away. The burglars visited two rooms in the house without awakening those sleeping in them. The police have not yet discovered the theives.

ROBBERY IN ADAMS STREET.—Sometime during Sunday night, the dwelling No. 131 Adams street, occupied by A. Garrison, was entered by a window and robbed of two gold watches and a wallet containing $17 in bank bills. One of the watches was taken from a bureau drawer in the servant girl's bedroom, and the other articles from Mr. Garrison's bedroom. The burglar escaped without raising an alarm, and has not been arrested.

PITTSBURGH, FORT WAYNE AND CHICAGO RAILROAD.—The earnings of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, for the month of May, were as follows:

From Freight	$43,782 56
Passengers	82,[illegible] 38
Mail	4,[illegible] 75
		$129,[illegible] 69
Total earnings of three Companies owning the line from Pittsburgh to Columbia for same month last year		103,018 34
Increase (25 per cent.)		$26,[illegible] 35

BURGLARY IN JACKSON STREET.—On Sunday night about 12 o'clock, some of the gangs of burglars that infest our city visited the dwelling of Mr. J. Roberts, No. 25 Jackson street, and carried off a gold watch and chain, and a wallet containing $17 in bank bills, $100 in gold coin, a check on I. H. Burch & Co., for $50, a check on Wadsworth & Hitz for $35, and several notes and drafts. All the articles taken were in Roberts' sleeping apartment. The burglar has not been caught.

DARING SCOUNDREL.—Sunday night a burglar effected an entrance into the dwelling 123 Madison street, occupied by Mr. Marshall, by climbing upon the roof of a back shed, and thence through an open window into a chamber, occupied by a young man boarding in the house. The noise awoke the young man and he demanded of the rascal his business, whereupon the scoundrel drew a pistol and sprung out of the window, effecting his escape. He has not been arrested.

BURKE'S NEWS DEPOT.—We are glad to notice that J. A. Burke has opened a News Depot at 63 South Clark street, where he keeps a large assortment of books, magazines, newspapers from almost every city in the Union, light literature, and in short everything new that's to be had. His store is handsomely fitted up and those who wish to visit will find attentive and accommodating attendants. He also receives the New York dailies regularly within from thirty-two to thirty-six hours after their publication.

ORDWAY'S MINSTRELS.—Metropolitan Hall contained a fair audience last evening, to listen to the music of Ordway's Minstrels. The songs were some of them new here, and were generally well rendered. The instrumental music was good, so far as the accompaniments were concerned, but some of the introductions were carelessly given and lacked precision. As a whole the concert was decidedly better than the average of entertainments of that character and was well worth hearing. The Minstrels appear every evening this week. See their programme.

BOLD ROBBER.—About three o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Charles Spaulding, residing at No. 125 Adams street, was awakened by a man searching his room. The fellow had effected an entrance by entering a window and crawling over the bed which was against it. Mr. Spaulding sprang out of the bed, whereupon the fellow made a leap over the bed and through the window, thus making good his escape. The rascal left a couple of pocket knives sticking in the window, which were used to prop it open, but failed to obtain any plunder. The burglar has not been arrested.

BURGLAR SHOT AT BY POLICEMEN.—On Sunday night, while officers Palmer and Bucklin were patrolling their beat, they discovered a fellow trying to pick the lock of the front door of a dwelling on Michigan avenue, while his companion stood on the sidewalk, under the trees, on the look out for persons approaching. When the officers came within some fifty yards of the rascals, the fellow on the look out gave the alarm, and both started on a run. The officers fired twice at them, the balls striking the sidewalk a few feet in advance of the fugitives. The officers then gave chase, but could not overtake them, and they finally disappeared in an alley. It is greatly to be regretted that the officers did not at least "wing" the rascals.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.—The annual meeting of the Trustees of the Northwestern University takes place in the College chapel on Tuesday next, at half-past 10 A. M. A public discourse will be delivered by Dr. Banister, in the church in Evanston in the evening.

ALLEGED HORSE THIEVES.—On Friday last a man named Wash Ham, and another known by the sobriquet of "Doc," went to the livery stable of Messrs. Wright & Currier, in the North Division, and hired a horse and buggy for the purpose, as they said, of going to the races. As they did not return the horse and buggy nor visit the race-ground, Capt. Yates was informed of the circumstances, and arrested the parties. They state, by way of excuse for not returning the team, that on their way to the races they took into the vehicle a casual acquaintance, who invited them to stop at a saloon and drink with him, which they did, and that this man came out first, got into the buggy and drove off without their knowledge or consent. Neither the horse or buggy have been found. The accused are to be examined to-day.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Capt. Bradley, the celebrated detective, yesterday showed us a new and admirably executed counterfeit on the Chippewa Bank, at Pepin, Wisconsin. It is a five, and a perfect counterfeit of the genuine, except that the color is too light, and the letter "k," in the words "New York," immediately following the engravers' names at the bottom of the bill, is an awkwardly executed capital letter, while in the genuine the "k" is, in printer's parlance, a "lower case letter." It appears that two men, calling themselves James Adams and Jacob Clayhouse, came to this city yesterday, with a considerable amount of this money in their possession, and succeeded in passing it in a number of places. During the forenoon a lad came into the banking office of Messrs. Ferrest & Co. and presenting one of the bills at the counter, asked if it was good. Mr. Ferrest replied that it was not, and, meeting Officer Williams, of Mr. Bradley's force, informed him of the nature of the bill, whereupon Williams arrested the men. Mr. Bradley then posted up the different banks in the city. It is supposed that a large number of these bills were put in circulation yesterday, and people should be on the look out for them.

The Wells Street Burglary.
ARREST OF THE ASSASSIN.
MORE PARTICULARS.

Our article yesterday morning, relative to the burglary at the boarding house, No. 177 Wells street, and shooting of Mr. Newman, owing to the hurry in preparing it for the press necessarily contained some inaccuracies. We stated that Capt. Yates had arrested several persons supposed to be connected with the affair, and we are glad to announce that Capt. Yates has arrested the man who fired the shot, and that both Mr. Newman and his wife fully recognized him. He gives the name of Terrence John Bigley, is about eighteen years of age, and quite prepossessing in appearance. Capt. Yates met him on South Clark street, near Stanwix Hall, on Sunday evening, and took him into custody. The names of the other persons arrested are David Brannin, Henry O'Neil, John T. Gaffeny, Michael Gaffeny and Owen Petitt "supes" at the National Theatre, and Michael Horan.

The means which led to the arrest of Bigley were simple yet effective. As we have before stated, in his flight, after firing his pistol, he left his boots, which he had taken off before entering the house, standing on a side porch. These boots had upon them the trade mark of Mr. Reis, boot maker in La Salle street, and upon the boots being shown to Mr. Reis, he recollected them as a pair he had sold and afterwards repaired, and described the appearance of the purchaser so accurately that Capt. Yates recognized him at once. The fact that Bigley had found a great deal of fault because the boots did not fit, caused Mr. Reis to remember him.

Our reporter yesterday visited the house where the burglary was committed, and it appears to be an average sized two story wooden building, occupied as a boarding house, and containing four rooms on the ground floor. On one side is a narrow hall, entered by a door leading directly from the sidewalk. From this hall a narrow staircase leads to the second floor. The front room below is occupied as a sitting room, and on one side of it is a lounge and a bureau. Upon this lounge the servant girl slept on the night of the burglary. The room immediately in the rear of the sitting room is used as a dining room, and back of this is the kitchen. There is also a small bed room opening from the dining room, which was occupied by a boarder. On the north, or hall side of the dining room is a recess with a bed, in which slept Mr. and Mrs. Newman. Both the sitting room and the dining room connect with the hall by doors.

Bigley entered the house by the front door, which was unlocked, passed through the hall and into the dining room, and within a foot of Mr. Newman's bed; he then went into the front room and rummaged the bureau drawers, and this operation awoke Mrs. Newman, who supposed the noise was made by the girl, and calling her by name, asked what she was doing. No reply was made, and a moment after she heard Bigley go from the front room into the hall and thence up stairs. She then awoke her husband and told him there was a robber in the house. During all this time there was a large camphene lamp burning upon the dining room table. Mr. Newman got up and searched the lower rooms, and then went up stairs, shutting the front door, which he found open. In the upper hall he found Bigley, who said he was a new boarder who came that night—that he was suffering from diarrhœa, and wanted to find the privy. Mr Newman showed him the way into the back yard, and returned to the dining room and inquired of his wife if she had taken a new boarder, and she answered she had not. In a few moments Bigley returned, and Mr. N. began to question him pretty closely, when he started for the front door, where Mr. N. caught him, and the fracas occurred, in which Bigley shot Newman and then fled.

The perfect coolness which Bigley displayed when first found in the house, and the consummate impudence manifested in coming back into the house, when he might readily have escaped by climbing the fence separating the back yard from the alley, indicates that, though young in years, he is old in crime, and has graduated early under the tuition of an accomplished master.

In order to test Mr. Newman and his wife's knowledge as to the appearance of the burglar, five different persons were taken to the house during the day, but not until Bigley was shown them did they recognize the burglar, and him they both positively identified.

Mr. Newman is under the care of Dr. Brainard, and last evening he was quite comfortable. His physician is of the opinion that unless severe inflammation should set in he will probably recover.

A GRAND HAUL OF THIEVES.—On Sunday night Lieut. Nichols, assisted by a strong force, arrested six men at McKay's saloon in North Clark street, who are reported to be professional thieves, burglars and pick-pockets, and who are said to be a portion of an organized gang engaged in robbing hotel guests of their property. The names of the persons arrested are Thomas Donnahue, Robert Collins, Jno. O'Neil, Richard D. Jordan, William Moore and Richard Smith. They have all been boarding at the Hamilton House for some time past, and are said to have "operated" extensively in this city. In the possession of one of them, Michael Donnahue, was found a gold watch, which has been identified as one stolen a week ago, from the room of a boarder at the Hamilton House. The accused will be brought up for examination to-day.

STABBING AFFRAY.—On Sunday morning about one o'clock, while Charles Collins, in company with three or four friends, was passing up South Clark street, they met Michael Gorman and a friend coming down. Collins being in advance of his friends asked Gorman if he was a policeman. This led to some altercation, and Gorman's friend got into a fight with Collins. They were separated in a moment, however, and some further altercation ensued, whereupon Gorman stabbed Collins twice in the back, near the spine, inflicting two very severe wounds. Gorman and his friend immediately left, and Collins' friends conveyed him to Dr. Woodward's office, where his wounds were dressed, and he was then taken to his boarding house on State street, near the Galena Railroad crossing.

On Sunday forenoon Lieut. Kennedy went to Gorman's house and arrested him. A partial examination was held yesterday afternoon before Justice Milliken, and Gorman was committed until Thursday next, to await the result of Collins' injuries. Dr. Woodward testified that Collins is dangerously wounded, and that it is doubtful if he recovers. He is represented to be a young man, a carpenter by trade, and an industrious and excellent workman. Gorman was one of the men engaged in the affray at the Michigan Southern Depot, in which three men were stabbed by a policeman. Both parties had been on a spree, and were considerably intoxicated.

NORTH-WESTERN SAENGERBUND.—The TRIBUNE, this morning, contains the Programme of the Grand Concert of the Northwestern Saengerbund, advertised to be given in this city, on Thursday evening next. We have repeatedly called the attention of our readers to the importance of the Festival, and now we would point out to them the peculiar features of this Grand Concert, which is one of the principal items of the affair. As is stated in the formal announcement, the number of performers will be three hundred and forty—a larger number than have ever before been heard in any concert in the West—as large as the materiale of the monster concerts of Julien in New York, about which so much was said a few years ago. The musicians are for the most part highly educated in their art; have long been practicing the pieces advertised; and will, when all are assembled, give those who hear them new ideas of the capabilities of musical sounds. We feel, and we have no doubt of the sympathy of our musical friends, when we say, that an entertainment gotten up on this magnificent scale by our German fellow-citizens, should be liberally, nay, generously patronized. The Germans as a body are doing much toward the musical education of our people; they have made their preparations for this concert with great cost and infinite pains; and, as their desire for gain is limited to the outlay incurred, we have no doubt, that their effort will be appreciated and generally responded to. The Programme is very attractive. It contains pieces which only are performed by an enormous orchestra and a multitude of choral singers—pieces which not one American in a thousand has heard, and which Americans in Chicago may never hear again. By all means, go!

ARREST OF SAMUEL T. COREY, THE ABSCONDING CHECK MAN.—Some time since the TRIBUNE chronicled the flight of Samuel T. Corey, charged with having obtained a considerable amount of money upon checks drawn by him upon Messrs. I. H. Burch & Co., at a time he had no money on deposit there. Corey was one of the firm of Doane & Co., well known fruit dealers, and his partners knew nothing of his transactions with the checks. Corey went to Canada, and his wife remained here for the purpose, it seems, of endeavoring to settle with her husband's creditors in such a way that criminal prosecutions would not be commenced against him in the event of his returning to Chicago. She had succeeded in doing so with three exceptions, and supposing she had completed her arrangements with these three, wrote to her husband to return, and he reached here yesterday. On the day of his return, the three creditors alluded to refused to compromise the matter, and Capt. Bradley, hearing that Corey was in the city, arrested him for obtaining money under false pretences.

The accused was brought before Justice D'Wolf yesterday afternoon, and held to bail in the sum of $600 for further examination on the 18th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M. It appears that Corey [illegible] to the banking office of Messrs. [illegible] and [illegible] purchased $300 of Eastern bank bills, for which he gave a check on I. H. Burch & Co. for $312. This was on March 26th. The next morning the check was presented and payment refused. Meantime Corey had fled. Mr. S. B. Walker also had a check for $200, drawn by Corey in his favor in payment for borrowed money, which Burch & Co. also refused to cash. Messrs. Lounsbury & Co. about the same time "exchanged checks" with Corey, and were served in the same manner. Morford Brothers have attached Corey's dwelling and lot for the amount due them. We have not learned the amount of money obtained by Corey, but understand it is large.

COOLING.—No matter how sultry the weather, the delicious ice cream at Anderson's, opposite the Court House, will make everything cool and pleasant. Besides, the strawberries to be had there are of the choicest varieties.

Strawberries, luscious, beautiful and tempting, are to be found in abundance at J. W. Doane & Co's, just imported from the South. Those fond of such delicious luxuries can be gratified by giving them a call.

NO LICENSE.—Abraham Ellinger was fined $5 for driving an express wagon without a license.

HEALTH ORDINANCE.—Jacob Berger was fined $10 for a violation of the Health Ordinance.

OBSTRUCTING STREET.—Wm. Fiefenbar was fined $25 for moving a house through the street without a permit from the Marshall.

STEALING BREAD.—Henry White was fined $1 for stealing a loaf of bread. Not being able to pay the fine he was sent to the Bridewell.

BRIDGE ORDINANCE.—Bernard Lodis was fined $3 for driving on Clark street bridge when the signal was up.

ROBBERY ON THE SAND.—J. Dorsey and his wife Ellen, were arrested by officer Beach, upon a charge of robbing an old man from the country, named Higgins, of $19.50. It is alleged that they decoyed him into their brothel, induced him to drink drugged liquors and while he was insensible, robbed and then carried him into the street where they left him. The accused will be examined in the Police Court to-day.

A FINE collection of books will be sold at auction this Tuesday morning by Geo. G. Grubb, at No. 121 Randolph street. Persons wishing additions to their libraries, and the trade, will find great inducement to purchase, as all will be sold without reserve. Sale continued till all are disposed of.

WOOD! WOOD!! ALSO BRIAR HILL COAL.—The well known firm of Cos & Carpenter, are well supplied with the best quality of beech and maple wood, and have always had the reputation of filling their orders with despatch, and of giving full measure to their customers. They have complied with the new city ordinance and have their wood boxes sealed and stamped with the City Inspector's brand, so that all buyers can see what they are buying. Now is the time to lay in your winter's stock of wood and coal, and thereby avoid exorbitant winter prices. Give them a call at their yard, Nos. 61 and 63 North Pier, or leave your orders at Becker & Deans, No. 129 South Clark street; or at Williard's drug store, corner North Clark and Michigan streets. je16-5t

THE SKIN.—No part of our physical organization is more worthy of careful attention than the skin. Its delicate structure and mechanism render it sensitive to the slightest obstruction, arising from inflamation consequent upon sunburn, or from the pores being partially closed by dust, or by being cracked and dried by changing air and wind. Burnett's Calliston, is prepared expressly to remove all these unpleasant conditions, and the result of its use is a perfectly healthy action, and a softness and loveliness of texture that health alone will induce. Prepared by Joseph Burnett & Co., Tremont street, Boston.—[Boston Traveller.

Sold by dealers generally at 50c and $1.00 per bottle. See advertisement in another column.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, Monday Evening, June 15, 1857.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

MONDAY, June 15.

HORSES.—The number on sale in the different stables is very much reduced, while the demand is as good as it has been for the last 12 months. A couple of contractors for the army, who were to furnish 150 horses and as many mules, have bought some 50 head of horses here within a few days at prices ranging from $100 to $140 each, which has helped to thin the market of stock. Drovers, too, have kept back their horses, supposing board to be too high while grain and hay are so scarce. But some stables charge only the old price—50c ℔ day, or 60c when the owner tends the horse, while some that charged 75c, now only ask 60c, except when men are furnished; then 75c is the rate. Until new hay is cut, rates must rule high for board.

Four of the stables have only 10 to 15 head each on sale, viz Heller & Prescott's, Robbins & Kelley's, Doty's and the Franklin street stables. At the New York House are 25 head, and at the Phenix 40@50 head and 7 mules—and much over 100 head in all. At Robbins & Kelley's this morning, half a dozen head sold to a stage owner, at $1,500 for the lot, and 5 other horses, from Michigan, for $130 each. Among those on sale at the Phenix are 7 fine matches and some choice blood horses from Kentucky, and 5 year old bay horse 16 hands high, held at $[illegible]; a 5 year old mare weighs 1,[illegible] ℔s, is 16 hands high; a pair of each are held at $[illegible], and [illegible] [illegible] dark dappled greys are left, held at $[illegible], are 6 years old, 16 hands high, good travelers, and cheap. At the New York House stables, 15 or 20 head sold, at a reported average of $[illegible]. At the Franklin St. 12 head sold; a span at $[illegible] another at $[illegible], and a span of mules to Jewel & Ross for store wagon at $[illegible]. Doty's stables have reverted to the original owners, Myrick & Co. and Dan Andrews will have after have sole charge of them—and no one is better acquainted with the business or better liked than Dan.

CATTLE.—A good many cattle a Myrick's yesterday, with more sellers than buyers, and rather a dull time among holders and good prospect for lower prices as people begin to think they are paying too high for their meat. A number of cattle were shipped east to-day where they will also meet a declining market. 6 head of extra averaging 1,[illegible] ℔s sold yesterday for $4 [illegible] 100 ℔s gross. A few smaller ones sold at lower rates; $3@3.50 is the general range. Receipts by railroad for last week [illegible] head, against 1,000 the week before.

SHEEP.—Prices the last week have been drooping, $[illegible] ℔ ℔ only being paid for sheared and $[illegible] for unsheared. There were some 1,[illegible] head at Myrick's yesterday.

HOGS—Have sold readily at $[illegible] gross, the range being $[illegible] ℔ 100 ℔s gross. A few changed hands yesterday at $[illegible] ℔ 100; but most of those on the market were shipped east. Receipts by railroad last week 3,[illegible] head, against 4,[illegible] the week previous.

VEAL.—A few calves were bought this morning at $[illegible], dead weight.

MILCH COWS are plenty, herded in the prairies beyond Myrick's, and sell at about the usual prices.

The Wool Trade.

We have made enquiries about the prospects for prices the coming season, and the result of our investigation is not a very favorable one for the chance of last year's rates being maintained. The stock of manufactured goods left over is large, and the trade is very depressed, consequently manufacturers cannot afford to pay big figures. The stock of foreign Wool in the market is very large, and heavy shipments are on the way. We saw a letter from a leading house in Boston which says that the stock now in warehouse in Boston and New York, awaiting the coming into operation of the tariff, is fully equal to the entire imports of last season.

The new tariff is admirably designed to protect native fine Wools, but under its operation there is a certainty of large importations of foreign fine wools being smuggled in. The foreign stocks are being on the market until the operation of the tariff, and as a new clip of native not yet coming forward to any extent, keeps up the price in the Eastern market for the present, but a decline of 15 per cent is confidently looked for. In New York, 17,000 lbs low mixed Western Fleeces have been sold at [illegible] to [illegible] cash.

Sales of the past week have been 4,000 lbs low mixed Western at 38c. The first lot sold here to-day brought 34c for ¼ and [illegible] blood, which brought last year 38. Buyers are not so plenty as last season and talk about paying 30 to 40c, or an average of a little below early prices of last June.—Cleveland Herald.

The Detroit Advertiser, of Saturday, quotes:

WOOL—One or two small lots of wool taken yesterday and to-day at 32@34c, about three-quarter blood and in good condition. Wool comes in quite sparingly, and the farmers seem rather uninclined to sell at the prices.

Imports and Exports.

From official tables made up at the Treasury Department, Washington, it appears that the imports and exports at the six principal collection districts, namely Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans and San Francisco, for the first three quarters of the fiscal year, ending March 31, were as follows:

	Aggregate Exports.	Aggregate Imports.	Total.
Boston	$[illegible]	$33,041,213	$[illegible]
New York	[illegible]	1[illegible]	[illegible]
Philadelphia	[illegible]	13,[illegible]	19,[illegible]

San Francisco	[illegible]	6,[illegible]	17,[illegible]
Total	$[illegible]	$[illegible]	$461,754,610

Of the imported foreign merchandise, amounting to $2[illegible], there were $[illegible] free and $[illegible] dutiable.

Of the exports, $[illegible] was of domestic produce. The above figures show an excess of imports of about $40,000,000, which has been met by the export of gold.

THE SUGAR CROP.—Mr. J. Bernard, jr., informs us that "the borer" has destroyed for him 150 hhds sugar. Col. Hicky says his overseer informs him he has discovered the worms in his cane, not yet, however, to do damage. We learn that Mr. Geo. O. Hall complains of damage being done his crop. Col. Hicky thinks the only material damage will be on the high-lands, as he has heard but little complaint elsewhere.—[Baton Rouge Gaz., 29th ult.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

NOT FAR AHEAD.—Yesterday we gave full credit to the propeller Potomac, of the A. T. Co.'s line, for being in a little ahead with the first canal goods via Buffalo. But credit is also due the W. T. Co.'s line. Two of these propellers, the Free State and Mohawk, as good vessels as float the Lakes, were yesterday unloading at the foot of State street. One of them, the Free State, Capt. Napier, was the first in to Milwaukee with canal goods via Buffalo, and reached Chicago Sunday morning about an hour and a half after the Potomac, of the A. T. Co.'s line, and of course would have beat her, but for the stoppage at Milwaukee to unload some 300 tons freight. The Mohawk, Capt. Pheatt, reached here yesterday morning; and the Mayflower, Capt. Arthur, is, probably at the same dock this morning. So that, we judge, "honors are easy;" and we will not do injustice to either line if we can help it; but are thankful Chicago has so many enterprising lines of propellers, with such worthy agents and good-looking captains.

The following items are from the Detroit Tribune of Saturday:

The propeller Montgomery, Northwestern Line, from Buffalo, with goods for Mackinac, Manitowoc, Racine, Milwaukee and Chicago, stopped here this morning and took on a quantity of iron for the Chicago Rolling Mill.

The propeller Acme, of the People's Line, touched here to-day, on her way from Buffalo to Chicago, with 19,000 bu wheat and 50 tons hides.

The new tug Leviathan came in to-day from Buffalo. She fully justifies the encomiums of the Press of that city, being built of the best material and in the staunchest manner. It is said that nothing afloat in the propeller line can equal her for speed. Her officers are as follows: Captain, James M. Averill; Mate, Joseph L. Mercer; 1st engineer, Isaac B. Hewitt; 2d do., Charles Scoville.

Mr. Fillibuster Walker is at Brown's Hotel. No parade is made over him. He will visit the President as the representative of "the Young South," and is sure of an affectionate reception.

A respectable Democratic and American meeting is now assembled to censure the firing of the marines on election day.

There was a long Cabinet session to-day, at which the Postmaster General unfolded his budget of bids for the overland California mail route. The highest bid for a weekly mail is one million of dollars a year over the Memphis route. The lowest is three hundred and forty thousand dollars, by way of Minnesota and Nebraska. The claims of St. Louis and Memphis are warmly canvassed.

The Black Democrats here are fully confident that Gov. Walker's policy will make Kansas a Slave State.

Gen. Cass has no thought of resigning, but Mr. Buchanan is worn down with doing the work of his Department, hence the correctness of my announcement.

ON THE RACINE & MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD,
AT AUCTION,
ON SATURDAY, JUNE 20, AT 10 A.M.
ON THE PREMISES.

WE SHALL SELL 200 LOTS IN THE beautiful town of Cherry Grove, in Carroll County. This place is situated on the Racine & Mississippi Railroad, (which will be completed this fall,) about eighteen miles west of Freeport, in one of the best farming regions in the country. For a Lumber point it cannot be excelled, being accessible from Chicago, Racine and Milwaukee by Railroads.

The Plat is at our office, and any information desired can be given there. Parties desiring to attend the sale should take the Friday evening train to Freeport, and will be taken to the ground by Mr. Hill, of the Keystone House, at Freeport, free of charge.

Notice.

THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS' EXPERIENCE has given the citizens of Chicago ample proof that the same process of cleansing gentlemen's clothes will not do, as practised by those inexperienced in the business. The fact of the matter is this, that unless their coats, vests, and pants, are dyed, cleaned and neatly repaired, by men skilled in their vocation, they had far better never be touched at all; but when they are operated upon by experienced workmen, it is certainly a great saving to the community at large, at the same time adding much to their bodily comfort. Now, gentlemen, all of you who know anything, know enough by this time to be fully convinced that the only true and reliable source of having your coats, vests and pants cleaned, neatly repaired, and made to look like new, is by COOK & McLAIN'S Chemical process. It certainly does remove every spot of grease, paint, wax, and tar, together with all other blemishes and impurities to which such garments are liable. The spots are warranted not to re-appear, as a beautiful finished lustre is put on as when first new.

Gentlemen, call at COOK & McLAIN'S and look at specimens of their Cloth Dressing. If they fail to please you, no charge will be made.

Remember, COOK & McLAIN, 96 Dearborn street, south of the Post office. al10-'56-ly.lx

Good Medicines.

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL and CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause. There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousands on thousands cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from Consumptive Diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, Liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early, and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only when it is weak but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the Face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, Loss of Appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the Head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own physicians.

Try them once, and you never will be without them.

Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by J. H. REED & CO., 144 and 146 Lake street, Chicago.

DAILY TRIBUNE.
No. 51 CLARK STREET.
CITY OF CHICAGO.
Tuesday Morning..........June 16, 1857.

Highly important from Kansas.

We have in another column very late and important news from Kansas. The Mass Convention, at Topeka, has resolved to maintain the old and impregnable position of the Free State party—to pay no heed to the enactments of the felon Legislature imposed upon the Territory by a Missouri mob—to stand by the Topeka Constitution, and to have no part or lot in the approaching election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention. All these will be re-affirmed by the Free State Legislature. Let him who can, gainsay the wisdom of the decision at which these freemen have arrived.

Fate of the Fillibusters.

We publish in another column a circumstantial account of the punishment that overtook a party of American Fillibusters who marched into the Mexican State of Sonora, under the leadership of Henry A. Crabb, of California, for the purpose of setting up a government of their own. Though the process was summary and accompanied by acts of needless barbarism, we do not know that there will be any general regret that a hundred lawless men—disturbers of the public peace—have been put where they will do no more mischief. Wishing Walker hanged, we could ask that Crabb be spared.

Collecting Taxes in Lawrence.

The "Law and Order" ruffian Deputy Marshal Fain, of Georgia, acting in the capacity of tax gatherer, made a visit to Lawrence last week, to collect taxes. One of the first men he met was Col. Eldridge, whose splendid hotel Fain had been instrumental in burning the year previous, and accosted him thus:

"Well, Colonel, I have come to town to assess property, and collect taxes from you and the balance of the citizens. Are you ready to fork over?"

"What! ask me for taxes, you d—— villain, after burning up and destroying my property. If I should pay you with an ounce of cold lead, it would be what you richly deserve. If you have assessed any taxes on my property, just take it out of that horse you stole from my barn last summer. Leave my presence, and the sooner you make yourself scarce, the better for your health."

The scamp acted upon the hint, and took himself back to Lecompton in double quick time, to tell Walker how he had succeeded in collecting taxes in Lawrence. The next question is, what is Walker going to do about it?

P. S. We omitted to say, that it was with great difficulty the leaders could keep the people of Lawrence, whose property he had stolen, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, last year, from taking him, tarring, feathering and riding him upon a rail out of town. He well deserved it. A public meeting was called, and the people of Lawrence resolved, as one man, to pay no taxes to the usurpers, nor to any tax gatherer appointed by the Bogus Legislature.

To New York via Allentown.

The New York Tribune, of the 11th, has the following:

> We are glad to learn that the progress of the subscription to the Allentown Railroad is such as to make it almost certain that this exceedingly important link between New York and the West will be commenced. The subscription now reaches $900,000, and only $1,000,000 is needed before the contractor will break ground. This amount should be filled up at once by the merchants of this city, if they are alive to their interests.

This has long been a favorite project with New York merchants. When completed, they will be enabled to ship their goods to the West through Pennsylvania, without sending them through the city of Philadelphia, where they have been subject to delay, cost and obstructions.

A road runs due west from New York through New Jersey to Easton, which is at the mouth of the Lehigh river, where it empties into the Delaware. From there, a road is completed up the Lehigh to Allentown, a distance of about 20 miles, west of Easton. The link that remains out is between Allentown and Port Clinton on the Schuylkill—a distance, perhaps, of forty miles. It is to complete this section, that the above subscription is being made. From Port Clinton, the Dauphin and Susquehanna Road runs westerly, bearing a little south, to the junction of the great Central Pennsylvania Road, at Dauphin, a station some ten miles west of Harrisburg.

There is also another route proposed from Allentown—viz., Reading, Lebanon and Harrisburg; but the Port Clinton route is the shortest and cheapest built.

The closing of this link will give the West a direct communication with New York on the shortest line that can be built. It will save the portage and drayage, the delay and expense attending the shipment of goods via Philadelphia from New York, as the line will be continuous to Pittsburg, and thence to Chicago or the Mississippi river without change of cars, besides being some forty or fifty miles shorter than by way of Philadelphia.

A Roaring Lion.

> The whole Freesoil press of the North are out in full cry against Gen. Walker. They are peculiarly bitter in their savageness. Thinking the lion to be defunct they fancy themselves as brave as lions in heaping ignominy on the carcase. That's their idea of chivalry—their conception of magnanimity—They look upon it as the quintessence of bravery to insult a fallen foe, and would, no doubt, recklessly spit in the face of a noble enemy, were he securely manacled hand and foot.
> Well, perhaps they will sing to a different tune after a while. They will have plenty of opportunities to curse; vent their spleen and disgorge their bile, before the world is many years older. Therefore, let them take comfort.—New Orleans Crescent.

The Crescent is in a double error, as regards the "Free-Soil press of the North." They do not consider the lion "defunct," but they do consider that he ought to be and that he will be, immediately on the occasion of his coming by his deserts. In point of fact, they do not consider the subject a "lion" at all, except by the courtesy of a few New Orleans editors. Gen. Walker came among them rather suddenly, defeated, disgraced and very narrowly escaping the rewards of an unsuccessful freebooter. He had butchered, burned and devastated an innocent and peaceful populace for a year and a half. During that time he had murdered friends and enemies alike with indiscriminate fiendishness, and by carefully fooling away all his opportunities and exasperating everybody with whom he had dealings, he had arrived within a very few steps of the gallows. Being furnished with a chance of escape he could not forego the opportunity of insulting the officers to whom he owed his pitiful remainder of existence, and they neglected to flog the conceit out of him with a cat-'o-nine-tails. During this year and a half he had exhibited only the qualities of the hyena. How proper that our friends on the Gulf should find him out to be a lion! One would suppose that the people of New Orleans had had opportunities to see real lions at one time and another, and that they would be able to detect readily whether the "carcass" referred to by the Crescent was the genuine king of the beasts, or only an inferior animal passing himself off in a hide which had grown elsewhere. Perhaps this is a new breed of lions, but by all means let him be a lion. "Let him roar again!"

Gen. William Walker has certainly lionized with some success all the way from New Orleans to Washington. Truly, to the audiences where he has condescended to lash his royal sides with his noble tail, there could not be "a more fearful wild-fowl than your lion, living." Gen. Walker has exhibited the difference as it exists in some latitudes, between a scoundrel on a large scale and his smaller contemporary, with a force that must have surprised himself. The exhibition is instructive. A conqueror returning from glory with a catalogue of noble and heroic exploits reaching from Nicaragua to New Orleans, could not have elicited an enthusiasm more vociferous and pervading than that which rushed in the train of this battered and defeated outlaw. Does such an outburst of sympathy belong more properly to the robber or the robbery? In other words, did New Orleans and Louisville shout aloud for Gen. William Walker or for the abstract principle of plunder? We ask the New Orleans Crescent whether there is anything in the history of this "blue-eyed," "grey-eyed" sinner, warranting such a demonstration of popular regard—whether his barbarities, imbecilities and invariable failures contain anything which the city of New Orleans should bow down to?

"Let him roar again! let him roar again!"

There may be [illegible] enough left to furnish Walker with the means of a new crusade [illegible], but we doubt it. The administration of Mr. Buchanan may be base enough to connive at the preparations for new marauding in Nicaragua, or elsewhere. This we do not [illegible] [illegible]

Douglas Dropping the Mask.

The thing is done. The farce is over. Squatter Sovereignty and all its attendant humbugs and sophisms have been formally renounced—renounced by Mr. Douglas himself—sent to the dogs, incontinently kicked out, knocked endways. There is not wind enough left in the the miserable absurdity to make a respectable squeak when trod upon. The late Springfield speech of the "Little Giant" did the work. In that he avowed his conversion, confessed his error, signed his recantation. In the words of our faithful and intelligent correspondent at the Capital, "he said 'he reversed his old opinions on this ground—had swung around and had taken an impartial view;' said that when a people were incapable of self-government it was the right, it was the duty of other people, other governments, to lay hold of and seize that other foolish people, and to govern them nolens volens—willing or unwilling."

Well done Douglas! But who expected this from him? Every sensible man has known, from the inception of the humbug, that it was a humbug and nothing more; but all politicians supposed that it would die a natural death—dwindle out in silence, as thousands of lies have dwindled out before. But, as Douglas was the midwife that brought the monstrosity into the world after Cass conceived—why, then, should he not be allowed to strangle it? In killing squatter sovereignty, however, it was not demanded of him that he should go to the other extreme, and embrace the doctrine that he has heretofore repelled. Now he is an absolutist—as much in favor of an autocracy as the Czar himself; as indeed he must be to logically maintain the opinions on Slavery to which is known to be committed. The exigency of the fillibusters and the probable attempt of the Administration to exercise its piratical propensities in Central America and the Caribbean Sea, doubtless necessitated a change of front. Without some pressure, he would have stopped on the ground that he occupied when, on a former occasion, also in Springfield, he declared the Missouri Compromise to be a compact "sacred in its character, and akin to the Constitution." Here was the proper resting place in his retrogression. But, as the humbug had done all it could do toward the enslavement of Kansas, and was portending mischievous consequences in Utah, we do not, upon second thought, see that Douglas could have done anything else. He has the same master to serve now as when Dixon, of Kentucky, threatened him, and Atchison growled in unison with the threatener. Then the Slave Power demanded Squatter Sovereignty as the cloak that would conceal the purposes of the repeal of the compact of 1820; now it demands interference in Utah, and a raid upon Nicaragua; and why then should Mr. Douglas hesitate? He renounced a life-long belief, and falsified all his previous professions, when he consented to be used in this Kansas-Nebraska business, in the service of the South. Why should he hesitate to change front again? Does not the Pro-Slavery Convention meet in Charleston in 1860; and is he not a candidate for the Presidency?

With all these shiftings and turnings clear in memory, how refreshingly cool is his mendacious puff of himself in reply to the invitation of the Grand Jury of the United States District Court, at Springfield a few days since, to deliver a political speech. The jury, with their Foreman at their head, called upon him at his rooms, and when there Reverend Daniel Short addressed him, and Douglas thus replied:

> "It was no part of my purpose, when I arrived here, to participate in political or public discussions. Indeed I have been forced to more of that species of labor in defense of those great principles of civil liberty and self-government, to which my life is devoted, than was consistent with my strength and taste."

We pass by the manifest impropriety of a Grand Jury meddling in politics, and Mr. Douglas's approbation of clerical dabblers in political affairs, both of which our readers will note, and ask attention to his preposterous claim to be considered a defender of "civil liberty and self-government." When we remember that he commenced life as an Anti-Slavery man—that he then took a liking to Jefferson's doctrine of non-interference with Slavery in States where it exists, but absolute prohibition in the Territories, (the Republican doctrine of to-day)—that he abandoned this for Squatter Sovereignty, or the belief that Congress could not exercise the power of prohibition at all—that he now goes over to the other extreme of opinion, and insists that the stronger may govern the weaker, that it is their right and duty so to do,—when we remember these facts, the last claim that Mr. Douglas has set up, may be considered the most mendacious act of his life.

Free State Mass Convention at Topeka.

ACTION OF THAT BODY.

FREE STATE MEN REFUSE TO VOTE.

Walker and Lane on the Stump.

FREE STATE LEGISLATURE.

Trial of Fugitt, the Murderer.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

[Special Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

Topeka, K. T., June 9th, 1857.

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Free State Legislature and the assembling of a mass conventian, I made my arrangements to come over, and arrived here this morning. I found the city crowded with strangers, although most of them were from the immediate vicinity. Flags were streaming gayly from many a house-top, and the mass convention was in session—"Jim" Lane presiding.

On going up, I discovered that "Jim" was making one of his characteristic speeches, full of blood and thunder, and abounding in hits that took down the "boys." I don't think Gen. Jim Lane was ever cut out for an orator, but, like a good many other persons, he loves to talk, and talks too much. He is also far too violent in his harangues when there is no occasion for any such tremendous display of stentorian lungs. However, he is "sound on the goose," and we must look leniently upon his eccentricities.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, and at the conclusion of Lane's effort the convention adjourned, to meet at 3 o'clock P. M.

As twelve o'clock—the hour when the Legislature were to meet—approached, I bethought me of the great change that had occurred in Kansas since the day when U. S. dragoons had, under command of a time-serving Executive, dispersed a similar assemblage of the people.

Soon the cannon's voice (the cannon has been christened "Liberty,") rang out a proud and clear defiance to titled traitors and modern Judases, for it told us that both houses of the Legislature had been called to order.

Unfortunately for those who believe in perfecting the State organization under the Topeka Constitution, there was not a quorum present in either house, and the Legislature adjourned to meet to-morrow at 9 o'clock A. M.

Both houses are comprised of members who, in appearance, intelligence and patriotism, are unequalled in any State that I have seen. A finer body of men it would be difficult to find, go where you might.

Nor could I keep my blood from boiling when I considered that many of those noble souls, who stood in manly forms erect before me, had been branded as traitors and fanatics, as enemies to the Constitution and foes to the Union, that their peaceful deliberations had been broken up by an armed force of the U. S. troops, and that a national administration sustained the crime.

But times have changed, and though we have no better federal government, we have stronger forces on the side of Freedom, and the administration dare not do that which it would like. And the moral victory which has been to-day realized in the peaceful convening of the Free State Legislature, will be recognized and appreciated by Freemen throughout the length and breadth of our Land.

Before dinner knotty groups were collected in every quarter of the town, discussing the policy to be pursued. It interested me not a little to hear the emphasis which a great many used in speaking of the bogus Legislature and its doings, or the operations of the ruffians.

I omitted to state that after Lane got through his speech this morning, Gov. Robinson was called up, but declined making any speech as the time for the meeting of the Legislature was close at hand.

The day has opened gloriously, and the mass meetings are to be held in the open air.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The first business that presented itself for the consideration of the Convention was the report of the Business Committee, which was as follows:

Resolved, 1, That the people of Kansas, now as ever, disown as invalid and of no force or effect the Territorial government as embodied in the enactments of the so-called Legislature of Kansas.

2. That it is made incumbent on the people of Kansas, by the highest considerations of justice and expediency to look forward now as ever, to their admission into the Union under the Constitution which they have already formed, as the only method of adjusting existing difficulties to which they will assent.

3. That the people of Kansas will pursue with unfaltering steadiness of purpose, the application now pending before the Congress of the United States, for their admission into the Union under their own Constitution, and with their own government, resting their hopes for the success thereof upon the profound confidence they feel that a measure so eminently just, and so conformable to the principles of past legislation in our country will eventually be conceded and sanctioned to them by the Republican [illegible] of the American People.

4. That the Constitution framed and adopted at Topeka, had its origin in a public necessity, was the offspring of the popular will, and experience has proved the wisdom of those who framed it, and it is the duty of the Legislature and officers elected under it, to complete the State organization, and [illegible] admitted into the Union; or the necessities of the people shall require.

Judge Conway dissented from the report, and offered the following as a substitute for the fifth resolution:

Resolved, 1st. That while we disclaim any intention to employ force to maintain the authority of our government, we do now recommend to the people of Kansas, that they, voluntarily, peacefully and universally accept, as their only rightful government, and act in all things with and up to, the government established under the Topeka Constitution; that they should look to it exclusively to extend protection to individual rights, and to regulate all the relations of society; and that they should refer all their personal controversies to its judicial tribunals for adjudication and settlement, and should scrupulously abide the decisions of the same; that they should in due adopt it in all its details, and the business of every day life, and everywhere respect its legislation as binding upon them; and its official functionaries as entitled to their obedience; to the end that the aforesaid government shall become the living government of the community.

Resolved, 2d. That in order to enable the people to accomplish this object, the Legislature under the State Constitution now in session at this place, in the opinion of this convention, should proceed to complete the organization of the State Government so far as that work constitutes part of its legislative duty—first, by establishing counties throughout the State, and providing for the form of government for the same. Secondly, by providing for the incorporation of towns throughout the State, including forms of government for the same; and by the enactment of all laws whatsoever which may be necessary to the complete development of the forms of the government to that point at which they may be taken hold of by the people in all their local departments, and made the fundamental rule of government.

The substitute, after considerable discussion by Judge Conway, Wm. Phillips, Chas. F. W. Leonhardt, and W. F. M. Arny, in favor of the substitute, and Col. Delchay, Gov. C. Robinson, Judge Smith, Gen. Lane, T. D. Thatcher, J. M. Walden and J. W. Morris, against, the substitute was submitted to the vote of the Convention. The President could not decide by the sound, and a division of the Convention was had—the substitute lost. The original resolution was then amended on motion of Mr. Arny, by striking out the words "the admission into the Union, or." After which the report as amended was unanimously adopted.

The Committee reported the following which were also adoped;

Whereas, By unfair legislation by the Lecompton "Legislative Assembly" and the manner of registration under the act providing for a call of a convention to form a Constitution has excluded a large majority of the voters of Kansas from a participation in the election of delegates to said convention: therefore,

Resolved 1st, That this Convention respectfully and earnestly recommend to the Free State party of Kansas, that the election for delegates, in pursuance of the law enacted by the Lecompton bogus legislature, be disregarded and permitted to pass without any participation therein by the Free State party of Kansas.

On motion, it was unanimously

Resolved, That since the issues of the past have been sufficient to develop the starting principles of every man in Kansas, therefore we regard any man who sympathizes with our oppressors to the extent that he consents to become a delegate to the Lecompton Convention, or a candidate for the same, is unworthy the fellowship or confidence of Free State men, and should be regarded with suspicion everywhere.

After which the Convention adjourned sine die.

AN EVENING MEETING.

After tea the people again commenced to assemble in front of Constitutional Hall, and there listened to a sensible address from W. F. N. Arny.

While the meeting was in session, some one announced that Gov. Walker was intending to speak down town.

This announcement created some little music, and was thought, by many, to be a design to break up the Free State Convention.

It was therefore determined that the Convention should continue its session, regardless of Gov. Walker, and Jim Lane, arising with great dignity, and a gravity that, from pomposity, savored of the ridiculous, said—

"As presiding officer of this Convention, I desire Gov. Walker to be told that this Convention will not adjourn to hear him speak, and that, if he concludes to speak, in view of all the facts, and thereby to destroy the peaceful deliberations of this Convention, upon his head be the responsibility."

As this was spoken with a terrific seriousness and an awful solemnity, "the boys" really thought there was something up, and yelled vociferously "Lane forever!" "Go it, Lane!" &c. &c. Although I had to laugh in my sleeve, I did laugh right heartily.

Well, after Arny had finished his speech, the question upon the adoption of the resolutions that had been cussed and discussed at such length, came up, and the vote was taken to our great relief. As might have been supposed, the resolutions of the committee were strongly endorsed.

After rousing cheers for everybody and everything connected with the Free State organization, the Convention adjourned sine die.

As the crowd passed by the Garvey House, where Walker was stopping, loud calls were made for "his worship," who finally condescended to make his appearance.

The Governor had much to say about the Union and the Constitution; regretted very deeply the troubles that had been [illegible] Kansas; sympathized with them who had suffered; announced himself as determined on having the whole people fairly express their honest convictions at the ballot box before impartial judges; said that if the bogus Constitutional Convention did not submit their Constitution to a fair vote, he would oppose them to the death, and go over to the Free State organization; asked the people to co-operate with him in restoring peace and quiet; thought the crisis existing here a very momentous one, but it would admit of a peaceful adjustment.

The speech created rather a favorable impression on the whole, though it was particularly remarkable for nothing.

Gov. Walker was followed by his lacquey, Mr. Perrin, who repeated all his old jokes, and indulged in his usual hifaluten.

After Mr. Perrin had closed, the crowd dispersed, although there was subsequently a dance and a supper, in which Gov. Walker and a large number of citizens participated.

The lateness of the hour will not admit of my writing more at present. Junius.

[From an Occasional Correspondent.]

Wyandotte City, June 12, 1857.

Messrs. Editors:—I have returned from Topeka, where Gov. Walker made one of the most plausible of his speeches, with the usual effect. Next, he addressed the people of Big Springs, where he met a cold reception. His remarks, as usual, were conciliatory, but toward the close of the address, he used this remarkable language—having in view the atrocious legislation attributed to the Lecompton Legislature—"there was nothing in their doings or in the history of the world, so gross as the usurpation of the Topeka Legislature." This was intended as a sop for the Lecompton delegation, but didn't take. After Stanton had spoken, Mr. Perrin was called for, but Gen. Lane came forward in obedience to loud calls. "Mr. Perrin is invited by the Governor," said Mr. Garry. "And I am invited by the People," said Lane, and proceeded to demolish Gov. W.'s sophistries in an eloquent, courteous, but cutting speech, every word of which told on the audience. Gov. Robinson was present, but was not needed.—Walker will be followed everywhere, and will find stumping a losing a job.

I learn that a secret session or caucus of the Topeka Legislature, was held on Wednesday night, in which they voted to put the State organization into immediate operation. They still lacked two of a quorum. It is doubtful whether any action will be taken, as the constitution requires a majority of all the members elected to pass any law, thus giving, in a thin house, a veto power to a small minority.

On Thursday afternoon, an election for Senator was held at Lawrence, and Mr. Phillips, the faithful correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, was chosen to fill a vacancy. Gov. Robinson's Message is not yet delivered; it will be published in the Free State papers as given by him. It is the unanimous resolve of all Free State men not to vote on the 13th, nor to pay taxes at any time.

Fugitt's trial goes on slowly. Three days were spent in obtaining a jury. Many had conscientious scruples about sitting on a capital case. Conscience must be epidemic in Leavenworth. Your's, in haste. L.

A Painful Scene—Burning of a Mother and her Child.—A sad affair occurred in the town of Aleppo, near Steubenville, Ohio, not long since. Mr. Peter Lyons, who resided in a somewhat secluded locality, went out on his daily business in the morning, leaving his wife and young child at home. On returning, several hours after, when he came in sight of his place he saw a column of light smoke wreathing up into the sunlight from the grove where his home was situated, and hurrying forward, perceived nothing but a pile of smoking rafters where his house had been. In the road, near the ruins, lay his wife, writhing in agony, with her clothes in cinders and her flesh burned to a crisp in many places. Her child was not to be seen; but afterwards, in raking over the ashes of the destroyed habitation, a few white bones were discovered—all that was left of the poor creature. Mrs. Lyons was removed to a neighbor's house, where, at last accounts, she was still lingering in great distress, and not expected to survive. From what could be gathered from the unfortunate woman, it appears that the fire originated in the upper part of the building, and that, on discovering it, she threw her child on a bed and hastily ran out for some water. The progress of the flames was almost unparalleled in rapidity; and on her return, seeing all hope of extinguishing the fire at an end, she also found, to her horror, that she could not reach the room where she had left the child. She made several desperate attempts, but the flames at last caught her dress, and the instinct of self preservation then caused her to escape from the dwelling, and to rush along the road, calling for help, till the torture of her blazing garments overpowered her, and she fell where her husband found her.

Shooting Affray in Lexington.—In a quarrel between John Clay, a son of the departed statesman, and a horse trainer named Edgar, in Lexington, Ky., on Thursday, the former shot the latter twice with a pistol. One ball entered his mouth, and came out behind the ear. Another ball lodged in his neck. Edgar is reported mortally wounded. Clay immediately left Lexington, and has not been heard from since. The parties have not been on amicable terms for some time.

THE CROPS—WAGON-ROAD MEETINGS—THE MINES—ANOTHER INDICTMENT AGAINST THE STATE TREASURER—MISCELLANEOUS NEWS.

In California few events of more than ordinary interest have occurred during the fortnight ending the 20th ult.

Frequent showers throughout the State have been of immense benefit to the growing crops, and although the yield this year will be far below the average, still they are by no means ruined, as was feared they would be a few weeks ago. Fruits and vegetables have suffered little from the drought. San Francisco markets are supplied with an abundance of strawberries, raspberries and cherries, all of which may be obtained at reasonable prices.

Conventions have been the order of the day during the fortnight. Wagon-road meetings have been held in Sacramento, in Calaveras, in Yuba, and in Shasta Counties, all of which declared in favor of different routes for a wagon road across the Sierra Nevada, to intersect with the great overland national highway. The Conventions were all well attended, and much interest evinced. Committees were duly appointed to collect subscriptions to aid in constructing the several projected routes.

A Convention of the Episcopal Church of the State was held at Sacramento on the 7th. From the annual report of the Bishop, it appears that two new churches were consecrated during the year. The Masonic fraternity have held a Convention at the capital, and the Odd Fellows another in San Francisco. Both of these orders are in a very flourishing condition.

The mines, as usual, continue to yield up their golden treasures. Fewer accounts of "big strikes" are chronicled, as time advances, but the diggings generally are paying quite as well as ever. Much more confidence prevails relative to quartz mining, as is evidenced by the increasing capital being invested in this branch of mining enterprise.

Still another indictment has been found against Dr. Bates, the defaulting State Treasurer, now under arrest in Sacramento. It is alleged that he has embezzled 41,000 of the State monies, which is over and above the missing $124,000. In default of bail in the sum of $50,000, he was ordered into custody. He is said to be very ill—so much so as to be unable to leave his bed. An officer constantly guards his room.

The trial of Ned McGowan was to take place at Napa, on the 22d ult. The prevailing impression is that he will, this time, get clear of the gallows.

The seventh anniversary of the San Francisco Baptist Association was held at the Washington street Baptist Church, San Francisco, on the 9th ult. Nineteen churches are embraced in the Association, ten of which were represented. The following churches applied for admission, and were received: Vallecito Baptist Church, Mariposa; Tabernacle Baptist Church, San Francisco; Uniontown Baptist Church, El Dorado; Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Marysville; Vaca Valley Baptist Church, Vaca Valley. The following gentlemen were elected permanent officers of the Association: Rev. J. Lewis Shuck, of Sacramento, Moderator; Brother J. F. Pope, Clerk; A. Gordon, Treasurer; R. B. Brierly, Corresponding Secretary.

HOSTILITIES BY INDIANS—FEARS OF ANOTHER INDIAN WAR—ARRIVAL OF GEN. LANE—REPUBLICAN TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

Advices from Portland, O. T., are to May 9. The Oregonian of May 2d says: We have reports that a delegation of Yakima Indians recently visited the Indian reservation at White Salmon on the Columbia, and demanded that the Indians there should join the "hostiles" in a war against the whites, under the penalty of death. It is also reported that the Indian women and children on the reservation have been sent away, or left and gone to the Cascades. It is the opinion of all well-informed army officers, that the Indian war will be recommenced as soon as the proper season opens.

The Northern Indians are also as troublesome as ever on the lower part of Puget Sound and Straits, committing robberies, etc. Fears are entertained that they will make open warfare upon the settlements. At Bellingham Bay the citizens are forted up in block-houses, and have organized a volunteer company to aid the military in case of an attack by these savages.

The fate of the Crabb Expedition.

FULL PARTICULARS OF THE DEFEAT AND EXECUTION OF HENRY A. CRABB AND NINETY OF HIS PARTY AT CAVORCA, SONORA.

[From the San Diego Herald, May 9.]

In our last issue we published a rumor of the entire destruction of Henry A. Crabb's party, numbering about 100 men, by the Mexicans in Sonora. By the following statement of the facts, kindly furnished us by a gentleman just arrived from Fort Yuma, it will be seen that the report has been confirmed. He says:

The expedition into Sonora, under the command of H. A. Crabb, has had a most disastrous end.

Late in March Crabb's party left Sonoita, Sonora, and marched to Cavorca, a small Mexican town near Point Lobos, on the Gulf of California. The first intention was to have proceeded to Altar, but news of its partial fortification and susceptibility of a strong defence caused the diversion on Cavorca. On the morning of the 1st of April the party of Americans entered the suburbs of the town. They were met by a body of the Mexican troops, commanded by Rodriguez. It is said Rodriguez advanced to speak to Crabb, when the Americans opened fire and killed the Mexican commander and several others. The Mexicans immediately retreated—some to the mountains, but the majority to the church, which had been placed in a state of defence, and had at the time Crabb entered the town, a number of beeves roasting whole in front of it, to feed the Mexican troops.

It appears that here occurred Crabb's first and fatal mistake. Instead of at once charging and taking the church, which would have given him the town, he occupied several houses on the plaza, in front of the church.

The Mexicans at first deserted the most of the town, but gradually being emboldened returned, and gradually hemmed the Americans in. Fighting continued eight days, with a loss to the Americans of twenty-one killed. The Mexican loss is reported by themselves to have been twenty-five, but is supposed to have been much greater, as high as two hundred.

On the eighth day an attempt was made by two of Crabb's men to blow up the church, by placing a keg of powder under the portico and firing it. The devoted men who attempted this were both killed, and Crabb is said to have been wounded in superintending it. It is said an offer was made by Crabb to retire if the Mexicans would allow it. He had refused to retire when the offer was made him, after the fighting had continued two days, and now the Mexicans, confident of his weakness and their triumph, refused. The Americans were gradually but surely caught in a snare, from which they saw no escape.

By breaking through the walls of the adjoining houses, the Mexicans forced Crabb and his party into the corner buildings, which they repeatedly set on fire, but which the Americans as often extinguished. At last a Papago Indian shot into the roof of the main building, occupied by the unhappy fillibusters, a lighted arrow. The flames caught the roof, and in a few moments the fire was dropping in great flakes upon the heads of the doomed men within. Worn out with constant fighting, exhausted with anxiety, famished by probable days of starvation and thirst, and without ammunition, Henry A. Crabb and fifty-eight men marched out of the burning house, with a white flag before them, laid down their arms and surrendered. It is supposed unconditionally. This was in the night or towards morning. They were immediately tied, their hands behind them, taken to a corral near the Alcalde's office, where they were kept until morning, when they were taken out in squads of 5 and 10 each and shot. In the first executions it was found that the calmness of the Americans discomposed the executioners and they shot too high or too low, in many cases only wounding their victims. The backs of the fated men were then turned to the troops, and then they succeeded in aiming with better effect.

McConn (may he rest in peace), owing to his great stature, was saved this torture; a ball struck him full in the breast at the first fire, and he fell dead. Crabb alone was reserved for a solitary death. He was taken to the Alcalde's office, questioned, allowed to write a letter to his wife, and to have an interview with Dr. Evans, a prisoner in the hands of the Mexicans, who had been in confinement some weeks, on suspicion. The hour for his execution having arrived, he was led out, his hands stretched above his head and tied to a post in front of the building he had occupied, his face to the post, and his back to the executioners. At the command fire, at least an hundred balls were fixed into his body, and all that was mortal of Henry A. Crabb hung dead, swinging by his tied hands. A Mexican stepped forward, and with a large knife severed his head from the body—the warm blood spurting half way across the street. The head was placed on a table in front, or in the office of the Juez, exposed to the jeers of the populace. It was then placed in a jar of mescal, for preservation.

Is there not something peculiarly terrible in such a fate for a man who has controlled almost the destiny of a great State like California?

Two of the Ainsa (brothers-in-law of Crabb) are said to be killed, and also Rasey Biven. My informant, an intelligent man, and an eye-witness of these horrors, says Crabb died as a gentleman should, as calmly and quietly as if he were going to a pleasant home.

Four men, sick, had been left at Sonoita by Crabb. They occupied the house owned by E. E. Dunbar, Esq., on the American side of the line. On the 18th April, at night, a party of 25 Mexicans came up from San Jacinto, went to Dunbar's house, took these poor sick men out of bed, tied them, and at dawn of day carried them to the foot of the hill, shot them like dogs, on American soil, and left them to rot. A party of Papago Indians, more merciful, buried them, and four solitary mounds now appeal, lone witnesses of a beastly crime, to the American government for revenge. Will such an appeal go unheard?

Mr. Dunbar just escaped massacre, having left Sonoita on the [illegible] previous. The Mexicans were furious at his escape, although he had nothing to do with the party except offer shelter, on American soil, to four sick men in his own house.

A party of about thirty recruits, under Capt. Grant Orey, started from Tucson to join Crabb at Cavorca. When within fifteen miles of the latter place they were attacked by about 300 Mexicans. Capt. Orey retreated, fighting, and regained the American line with a loss of only four killed. The Mexican loss was about forty. Capt. Orey deserves great credit for his skill. At every watering place the Mexicans attempted to check him, and subdue him by thirst, but he routed them on every occasion. The last eight miles was a continued running fight, and his fourth man lost was killed just at the line. Another party, of the same strength, which left Tubac, has not yet been heard of. It is believed if Grant Orey had been with Crabb, a different result might have been anticipated. All wanted was management, want of experience, and a clear rushing upon a deadly fate.

Crabb entered Cavorca with 84 men. All these were killed except the youngest, said to have been spared by the Mexican Commander, Garcia. The name of the survivor is unknown, but he is said to be a boy of sixteen or seventeen.

The Mexicans at Cavorca were about 500 strong.

Major Bob Wood and Major Tozer are safe. They were with Capt. Orey's party. Col. N. R. Wood, late Fillmore elector, is among the dead.

From New Granada.

From New Granada we have no news whatever in relation to our pending dispute with that republic. The Administration of President Ospina remains dumb upon the subject. Mr. Bowlin had intimated that, satisfied that no proposition would be made to him, he would leave Bogota on the 20th inst. for the United States. The British Mackintosh Claim has been settled. New Granada pays $560,000 in paper instead of cash. Diplomatic intercourse between the two countries has been resumed.

Interesting from Nicaragua.

The Panama correspondent of the New York Times gives that journal many interesting particulars of the surrender of Walker, his policy, cruelty, rapacity, &c. We quote the following items:

Capt. Davis, of the U. S. sloop-of-war St. Mary's, relates this story of the surrender:

In the latter part of April, a man by the name of Teller came on board the St. Mary's, apparently half frightened out of his wits, and threw himself upon a sofa. He said he did not belong to Walker's force, but had come down to see how he could get himself and wife and child out of the country. On his way to San Juan del Sur, he said he had been chased by a squad of the allies, and came near being captured. He had not been on board long before Gen. Estrada, in command of the force occupying San Juan, sent to Com. Davis to say that he had reason to believe Teller was a spy. Com. D. replied that if proof could be produced to that effect, he would deliver Teller over to him for punishment. On going on shore, Commander Davis learned that Teller had come down with a guide, who reported that they had a secret despatch for somebody, which, Teller getting frightened, they buried on the roadside. The guide went out and brought in the letter. It was without signature, and simply addressed "Dear Mac."—McDonald, agent of the Nicaraguan steamers. It was in Walker's handwriting, and recounted the strait to which he was reduced, completely hemmed in by a numerous enemy, without provisions, and the men daily thinning out by desertion. Walker prayed McDonald for God's sake to work some plan by which he could get possession of one of the lake steamers, or to fix some other way for his escape. Upon reading this missive, Commander Davis determined to act at once. In his first interview with Henningsen, the latter commenced by saying that Walker was perfectly comfortable behind his fortifications—had plenty of men, ammunition and and provisions, and could cut his way out of Rivas whenever he should choose. To this Commander Davis replied, if that was the disposition with which he was to be met, he would respectfully take his leave. Whereupon Henningsen got down from his high horse, and the capitulation was the result.

WHAT THE NATIVES THINK OF WALKER.

General Walker persists in the great error he has fallen into, that a large portion of the population of Nicaragua are in his favor, and would prefer his rule to any other. Henningsen, in his report to his Commander-in-Chief, on the evacuation of Rivas, sets down the number of native troops in the force at 40. This small number would be proof sufficient that the lower classes did not sympathize with the fillibuster cause, admitting that there were 40 native troops in Rivas; but there were not. These forty men were servants, cooks, hostlers, &c., staying upon compulsion. In February last, Walker had only three natives enrolled in his army—one of them, Capt. Sandoval, a cattle thief, was given a commission on account of his expertness in that line, and the two others were used as scouts. I saw, while at Rivas, how Walker obtained even the few natives he had about his camp as servants. One day, driving down to St. George with his Quartermaster-General, that officer rode up to the door of the Alcade, a native. The Alcade was engaged in business with two or three Secretaries, but immediately came to the door, bowing most obsequiously. "Where are the five men I ordered you to send me yesterday?" inquired the Quartermaster, in a very severe tone. "Your Excellency," replied the Alcade, "as soon as the people heard of your order they all ran away from the village." "They did—did they? Well, now I want you to understand distinctly, that if you do not send me five men by to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, to take care of my mules and horses, I will send a guard down to St. George, and take you and your Secretaries for the service."

WALKER'S GALLANTRY.

Senorita Eva, the daughter of an old gentleman living on Vacienda, not far from Rivas was suspected of having money. Upon the pretence that she was encouraging his men to desert, Walker ordered her arrest:

Col. Caycee was dispatched with orders to arrest Senorita Eva, and she was brought in and thrown into the guard house, on the main Plaza, among fifteen or twenty thieves and other criminals and insubordinates, the scum of the army. I have, myself, looked into the guard house. It is a room with a dirty brick floor, alive with fleas and reeking in filth, with nothing but boards for the men to sleep on. Here this lady, of fine education, of an old Spanish family, delicately reared, was kept seven days and nights, being visited every day by an officer, who offered her liberty on condition that she would pay $2,000 fine. Finding, at last, that she had not the money, it was proposed to her, as her prison was so uncomfortable, she should go and live, while under arrest, in the family of a man named F*.

Having ascertained that Mr. F. was not a married man, but living with a fille de joie, she declined, preferring to stay, as she said, among the men, as, where there was so many, one would protect her against the other. Upon this, she was removed to a private prison in the Commissionary's Department, where she was kept some three months. After many efforts, she finally got an interview with Gen. Walker, when she was told that she was accused of attempting to induce men to desert; but, upon relating her story, she was released from arrest. Now, whether Gen. Walker was or was not cognizant of the outrages toward this lady, it matters but little, so far as his guilt is concerned. If his officers could do such things under his very nose, it shows he was careless as to their acts, thus winking at their brutalities.

NICARAGUA AS A HOME FOR WOMEN.

After the siege of Granada, the women, many of whose husbands had been killed or died of cholera, were brought over to St. George, where Walker established his headquarters. They were entirely dependent upon his "Government" and upon private charity for subsistence. At this time, amidst all the sickness and privation, Walker issued an order to the Commissary to stop the rations of all persons not immediately connected with the army and departments. Thus, over two hundred rations were stopped, leaving not only the distressed women, but many men unconnected with the army, who, nevertheless, had done military duty in the defence of Granada, sick and destitute.

MRS. SLATE'S EXPERIENCE.

Among the women was a Mrs. Slate, whose whole history is peculiarly a sad one. Her husband, a surgeon in the army, died at Granada, and her two children at Ometepe. Being left alone, she asked Gen. Walker for a passage to the United States—(it must be recollected that passages in the Nicaragua steamers cost him nothing, ($20 being scored against him for each person going on his order, to be deducted from the $400,000 for which he sold out the Transit property to Randolph and his associates)—which request he refused. Mrs. Slate then established a boarding house at Rivas, in which she earned money enough to pay her expenses to California. Upon going to him again, Gen. Walker gave her a passport to leave the country, but would not provide her conveyance or escort to San Juan del Sur. She was compelled to remain in Rivas until the 11th April, when her house was assaulted and taken by the Allies. Gen. Walker's six-pounders were brought to dislodge the enemy, and in the combat which followed, Mrs. Slate had one of her legs shot off, of which she died after undergoing amputation.

TREATMENT OF A PRISONER.

Among the prisoners taken by Gen. Walker at the assault upon Rivas on the 11th of April, was a captain in the Nicaraguan army. When brought before Walker, the latter remarked: "I think I know you, Sir. Lieutenant," addressing one of his officers, "take him out and shoot him." The gallant lieutenant immediately executed the order, with his own hand blowing out the captain's brains with his revolver, in front of the General's own quarters! The body of the officer was seen four hours after lying in the street, in the same place where it fell.

THE LIEUTENANT LEFT.

Lieut. Schremerhorn, of Richmond, Va., who was wounded at Obraje, Jan. 27, was sent to Walker a few days after with a tender of his resignation. The General declined accepting it; when the Lieutenant remarked that he had accepted the resignation of other officers who had not served so long as he had, and he did not think it was right to refuse him. Walker replied, "Sir, if you was not wounded, I would have you taken out on the Plaza and shot! have you any more business with me?" The Lieutenant respectfully took his leave.

THE REMAINING TROOPS.

We have received some intelligence from Nicaragua since the departure of Walker and his staff. Two hundred sick and wounded fillibusters—the remnant of Walker and his army—had arrived at San Carlos in the steamer of the same name. They were all on their way home, and are described as being in a most pitiable condition. The men left in Rivas have probably gone to Costa Rica, where there are already some three hundred Americans from Walker's army.

Special Notices.

A Card to the Sick.

FROM DR. S. S. FITCH, OF N. YORK, Author of "Six Lectures on the causes and cure of Consumption," and Founder of the system of Medical practice therein explained, by which Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, and most Chronic Diseases are found to be perfectly curable.

Dr. S. S. FITCH desires to say to invalids that he continues his practice at his office, 714 Broadway, New York, where he may be consulted either personally or by letter.

Questions to be answered by invalids—Those who write will state name, age, occupation, post office and State.—Where born and lived? family complaints? strong or slender? color of hair, whiskers, eyes, complexion? height and girth just above the hips? Any heart trouble, cough, expectoration, raised blood, sore throat, hoarseness, loss of voice, chills and fever, night sweats, asthma, humor, skin diseases, scrofula, spots, blotches or eruptions on the face, cancer, catarrh, rheumatism, bloating, palpitation, stoppage or fluttering of heart, disturbed sleep, dyspepsia, bad digestion, sour or sick stomach, wind, sinking feeling, biliousness, costiveness, diarrhœa, worms, piles, kidney troubles, weak back, pain anywhere? And all other particulars. If a lady, married? had children? female complaints, irregularity? Enclose stamp for reply, and prompt reply will be returned, giving all necessary instructions.

A personal interview with the patient is desirable; but if those at a distance find it inconvenient to visit New York for the purpose, treatment may be conducted successfully by letter, and remedies sent by express or otherwise to any part of the country.

Dr. S. S. Fitch's "Six Lectures" explaining his treatment, 360 pages, 30 engravings in muslin, sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of 40 cents.

Dr. S. S. FITCH is never absent from his own office in New York.

PERMANENT OFFICE IN CHICAGO, for the treatment of Pulmonary and other Chronic diseases.

DR. CALVIN M. FITCH, author of the "Invalid's Guide and Consumptives Manual," and his assistant, Dr. J. W. SYKES, have now opened a permanent office at 104 Monroe street, Chicago, Ill.

where they may be consulted daily (Sabbath excepted) for all difficulties of the Throat and Lungs; also for Dyspepsia, Female Diseases and all other affections complicated with, or predisposing to Consumption.

This combination of appropriate Medicinal Inhalations, with the constitutional treatment necessary, and which an ample experience and close observation can alone determine, added to bathing, friction, proper diet, exercise, &c., &c., must obviously effect far more for an invalid than can be accomplished by either of these plans singly. And experience amply shows that we may thus afford entire and permanent relief where the patient applies in reasonable time, and materially prolong life and lessen suffering even when too late for a perfect cure.

So insidious is the progress of consumption, and so dangerous at all stages, that we can not too strongly urge upon those affected with or inclined to that disease the necessity of giving themselves due and TIMELY attention as the delay of a few weeks may sometimes change to a fatal an otherwise curable case, and wherever it is possible we wish to make a personal examination and ascertain the actual condition of the lungs, which when desired, we always communicate to the patient.

Where to patients at a distance this is impossible, a full statement of case should be given, and answers sent to our published list of questions, and to all such we will return a prompt reply, giving our opinion of the case and the expense of treatment.

Our "Hints to Invalids," a pamphlet of 48 pages, giving brief practical directions for the prevention and relief of all diseases of the chest, also of Dyspepsia and Female Diseases will be sent free to any requesting it. Letters may be addressed either to

C. M. FITCH, M. D.,

or J. W. SYKES, M. D.,

104 Monroe st., Chicago.

JAMES ADAMS,

No. 40 Hudson street, New York,

Near the Railroad Depot.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.—CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1847, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Schiedam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps." Schiedam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the liquor mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Schiedam Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles, a merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of his community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory for popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

is made from Barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

HAIR DYE—HAIR DYE—HAIR DYE.—W. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE.—Gray, red or rusty hair dyed instantly to a beautiful and natural Brown or Black, without the least injury to the hair or skin.

FIFTEEN MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS have been awarded to Wm. A. Batchelor since 1839, and over 80,000 applications have been made to the hair of his patrons of his famous Dye. Prejudice against dyeing the Hair and Whiskers is as unjust as it would be against covering a bald head with a wig.

WM. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE produces a color not to be distinguished from nature, and is warranted not to injure in the least, however long it may be continued.

Made, sold or applied (in 9 private rooms) at the wig Factory, 233 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold in all cities and towns of the United States, by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

The genuine has the name and address upon a steel plate engraving on four sides of each bottle, of IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.—DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.—The combinations of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which always arise from interruptions of nature. They can be successfully used as a preventive. These pills should never be taken in pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. For sale by C. V. Clickener & Co., No. 81 Barclay street, New York; Penton, Fisher & Co., 34 Lake street; and Penton, & Robinson, 15 South Water street, Chicago.

$1,000—TASTELESS AND CONVENIENT.—BRADFORD'S Infallible Gum-Coated Pills, for the positive cure of diseases, where that nauseous stuff, Copaiva, is generally used. The proprietor of these Pills will forfeit the One Thousand Dollars if they fail to make a cure, and hopes that he may be instrumental in saving thousands of unfortunates of diseases for which the usual remedies (which are often ineffective) are nauseous, and certain to accomplish the exposure of the Patient. The Infallible Gum-Coated Pills are without smell—cannot be detected as a specific for secret diseases, as they look like any ordinary Pill, and may be carried in the vest pocket, and safely taken anywhere. They can be swallowed without the slightest inconvenience, having no taste and producing nothing like sickness of the stomach. No other remedy of like nature possesses such advantages, nor will they cure so surely and so speedily as the Infallible Gum Coated Pills.

Price $1 per box, or 6 boxes $5. Sold by

FAHNESTOCK & DAVIS.

100 Randolph street.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—This great chemical discovery has taken precedence over every other preparation for changing the color of the Hair. The public have realized by experience the important fact, that while it imparts the most perfect and natural black or brown, it does not impair the softness and elasticity or arrest the growth of the hair. Free from all caustic ingredients, it neither stains the skin of the head, dries up the moisture circulating through the fibres, nor emits any unpleasant odor. The application is given and finished in ten minutes, in any weather, and the rich natural hue imparted to the hair of the head, the whiskers and moustaches is uniform to a shade in every filament. Hence its popularity, and the wonderful rapidity with which it has superseded other dyes, throughout the United States.

Price, small size $1.00

DAILY TRIBUNE.

TUESDAY MORNING.................JUNE 15.

EVENING.

BY PAULINA.

[For the Chicago Daily Tribune.]

If the choral stars of morning
Chanted o'er the young creation;
And a shout of joy triumphant
Echoed through the vault of Heaven;
Who may tell what sacred raptures
Thrilled the bosoms of the blessed
When the first sweet fall of even,
Hallowed as an angel presence—
Smiled upon the breathless hill-tops—
Sank into the voiceless valleys,—
Sank upon the dreamy valleys,
Like a blessing, sent of Heaven.

Who can paint the smile of even?
Paint the loveliness of even?
Tell how spirits hover—hover
From the islands of the Blessed,
Bringing thoughts of those who "are not,"
Are not—like us, tried and tempted;
Are not—wayward, weak, and erring—
Are no longer earthlings, earthly,
(Reed-like bowing to the stormwind)
But who are the loved and ransomed,
Of the blessed Son of Mary;
Those for whom He bore earth's anguish,
Those, for him, who loved and labored,
Come they not again at even
With thy sorrow-stricken mourner?
Dost thou never listen—listen,
For the folding of their pinions?
For the glancing of their pinions,
Search the fading gold and azure?

Comes He not thine own—thine only—
To thy bosom pallid maiden,
As thou sittest 'neath the willow,
With its shadow o'er thy heart-strings,
Dreaming of the plains of Alma,
Of the fearful dye of Alma?

As the shadows lengthen—lengthen,
And thy mighty grief grows stronger;
Stronger in its wild vehemence—
In its deep, and voiceless sorrow—
Gentle, sympathetic even,
Tender, calm, angelic even,
Poureth in the bosom riven,
Healing balm, prepared of Heaven.

In the starry eyes above us,
"There is neither speech nor language,"
Yet their spirit-voice re-echoes
In the heart's unopened chambers;
Yet their holy tears of pity
Gem the hearts of sleeping roses,
Bathe the brow of pallid sorrow,
Dew the grave, no love hath hallowed.

Even, is itself an anthem;
Is creation's tender minor;
Is the angel song, that echoes
Through the portals of the blessed,
Till the silent earth, enraptured,
Draweth nearer—nearer—nearer
To the Author of its being—
To the feet of the All-Father.

The Mormons Locked Horns with Drummond.

Dog Eat Dog—Who Cares?

[From the Oquawka Plaindealer.]

It is said that "when rogues fall out honest men get their due." But one thing is quite certain—they are very sure to get a good knowledge of the character of the rogues—Judge Drummond's onslaught on the Mormons has provoked from them a retort, and one Judge Appleby, a Mormon, who we believe was clerk of the Supreme Court in Utah, has published a letter in "The Mormon," a paper published in New York city, in which he propounds a number of questions to Judge Drummond, and says when a truthful answer is given, all suspicion will no doubt cease about his not being respected in Utah. The questions number twenty-three in all, which we publish below, omitting a number as not having general interest. The very plain inferences to be drawn from the questions, we have no doubt are strictly true, as they correspond to what is already known of Drummond by citizens of this place, and also to his general character. It is now rendered quite certain that he resigned his Judgeship for the purpose of getting the appointment of Governor of Utah, that he might return there vested with sufficient power and authority to revenge himself on the Mormons for the indignities offered his "Ada," the romantic lady whom Drummond first saw in a dream. The Mormons are bad enough in all conscience, but the infamy of Judge Drummond makes them appear respectable in comparison, and since the mask has been torn from him, we trust that no respectable journal will hereafter countenance him so much as to publish any of his letters. Appleby publishes quite a lengthy letter, which of course defends the Mormons.—In the questions he leaves the name of Drummond blank, but in an editorial in the same paper, attention is called to the communication, in which the name of Drummond is used quite freely. It will be seen that one Col. Hall has a desire to see Drummond. For our own part we think it not much matter how soon he has that pleasure. Here are the questions to which Drummond is requested to give a truthful answer:

Question 1. Hon. Sir, have you a lawful wife and several children residing at Oquawka, in the State of Illinois? Or have you been divorced from her?

2. Did you leave them there in the spring of 1855, and go to Washington City to get your credentials and instructions from the department, previous to your departure for Utah, to enter upon the duties of an Associate Justice?

3. Did you, while at Washington, visit a house of prostitution, kept by one Mrs. —— in —— street?

4. Was there a nymph boarding there who occupied two rooms in said house, and who went by the name of Ada Carrol, alias Mary Carrol, and whose real name was Mary Fletcher, formerly of Baltimore; and who had a husband named Charles Fletcher, by occupation a school teacher; likewise a mother by name of Ridgley, both residing in Baltimore at the time?

5. Has not said Ada a finger separated at the middle joint on her left hand, and a slight impediment in her speech?

6. Did you exclaim the first time you beheld her at said house of ill-fame—"My Lord, is it possible I am going to love a ——. You are the same person I saw a few nights since in a dream?"

7. Did you leave Washington, taking said Ada along with you, on the 19th day of April, 1855, for Utah—proceed as far as Baltimore, and put up at the "Eutaw House" as husband and wife?

8. Did you pursue your journey, arrive at Independence, Mo., call on Col. Hall, and introduce said "Ada" as Mrs. "Judge ——;" and did not Col. Hall make a dinner-party on the occasion of your arrival, and invite several ladies and gentlemen of Independence to participate with you?

9. Did you on your arrival at Utah introduce said Ada as Mrs. Judge —— to Chief Justice Kinney, wife, daughter, and others?

10. Did you say to Mr. Silas Richards, of Utah, (a relative of your wife in Illinois) in reply to the question: "Is the wife you had in Illinois still living?" "Yes, but I have been divorced from her."

11. Have you held a regular correspondence with your family in Illinois, while you were in Utah?

12. Did Ada draw some two thousand dollars (was it the fruits of prostitution?) she had deposited in a bank in Washington, and take it with her to Utah—and did you make usury loans of that means, at 30 and 40 per cent. while in Utah?

13. Did you have said Ada sitting beside you on the Bench, while you were holding courts at Fillmore City, Utah?

14. Did not the people of Utah inform you that they knew the character of the woman, and that it was a high insult to them, and a disgrace to the General Government that sent you, for you to sit as a Judge with a notorious prostitute on the Bench beside you—and did you not thereby forfeit all respect and esteem of the people by pursuing such a course?

16. Did you not, while residing in Utah, speculate in purchasing runaway negroes, from Missourians returning from California, buying and selling horses, Indian claims, land warrants, loaning money at enormous usury, &c., instead of attending to the duties of the office to which you were appointed?

17. Did you not send your negro "Cato," to assault one Levi Abrams, a Jew, at Fillmore City, last January, one year ago, because the Jew made some remarks in relation to your Ada?

22. Have you returned home to your "divorced" wife again—please inform us where you left "Ada," and how much you made by using her money, and if she got the profits, or any of the principal?

23. Dare you meet Col. Hall of Independence, Mo., or have you seen him since you introduced "Ada" to him as Mrs. Judge ——, and to the ladies at his house, and have you ever heard of a remark that is reported Col. Hall made, in reference to your insult, "If ever I meet Judge ——, I will shoot the damned rascal!"

Duel Extraordinary.

(From the New Orleans Bee, June 2.)

A duel was fought near this city yesterday morning, which, for the singularity of its denouement, is perhaps unparalleled in the annals of single combat. A well known gentleman in this community whom we shall call Mr. A., feeling himself aggrieved by the conduct of an gentleman, whom we shall designate as Mr. B., sent him a challenge, which was accepted—weapons, pistols; distance, twelve paces; time, six o'clock in the morning. The usual preliminaries were settled, and at the word, both pistols exploded. At the same instant B. was seen to stagger. The seconds rushed up, when it was found that the ball had struck the outer case of his hunting watch, from which it had glanced at nearly right angles, passing out through the lappel of his coat. The watch was in the vest pocket and almost directly on the heart. The case was found to be considerably battered but otherwise the watch had sustained no other injury, although it had gained about three hours in three minutes. The hands which a minute before had stood at 20 minutes past six, now marked half-past nine.

But perhaps the most curious part of our story is to come. On looking around to see what had become of A., the seconds found him leaning over in the act of picking up something from the ground, and on approaching nearer, discovered to their astonishment, that one of his whiskers, which he wore unusually large and heavy, had been shorn completely from his face, and with as much precision as though it had been accomplished by the most skillful barber. It was that some peculiarity in the bore of Mr. B.'s pistol, had communicated to the ball a rotary motion, which combined with its great velocity could necessarily produce an effect similar to that caused by some sharp cutting instrument. The result of the duel so far had been so utterly singular, that it precluded all thoughts of pushing to a perhaps more disastrous issue. The seconds interposed and reconciled their principals, and in a couple of hours thereafter the whole party were toasting each other in a certain fashionable restaurant below Canal street.

Two large pearls, the size of small strawberries, were found in a lot of clams at Belleville, New Jersey, on Saturday, and were taken to New York on Monday for [illegible]. Several small pearls were found [illegible] in a bunch at [illegible] Ferry.—N. Y. Post, 9th.

Why the African Slave Trade is not Suppressed—The Need of Free Colonization.

From the London Times, May 28.

In all the debates and treatises, in all the active measures and proceedings to which, for the last fifty years, the slave trade has given rise, one weak point of policy will invariably be discovered. At length, after forty years of incessant efforts, measures of repression have so far succeeded that nine tenths of the contraband traffic may be considered as stopped; but under what conditions? Why, the whole gist of the debate on Thursday evening was, that our success was only just commensurate with our coercion; that as long as we held the screw tight we might reckon on security, but no longer; the slave trade, as Lord Palmerston phrased it, was "not extinguished in the hearts" of the planters; and that, in point of fact, we were just where we used to be, except in so far as violence, or threats of violence, had produced—not abandonment, but suspension of wrong.

Who can wonder at this? or who can expect that such ideas will cease until a substitute has been found for something which was indispensible, and which has been taken away? Here is the weak point of our policy. Instead of endeavoring to destroy the hankering after slaves by the importation of more lawful labor, we merely abolish one agency without thinking about another. We intercepted a supply, but left an active and powerful demand—a demand which we ourselves continued in stimulating.

Very possibly the employment of slaves, like all vicious practices, might have produced some positive preference for the evil; but this must soon have vanished with a state of things providing equal opportunities for enterprise in a better form. As a matter of calculation, indeed, slave labor is not cheap labor, but, as we left things, it was that or none; so that the impulse of evil habits conspired with necessity itself in keeping people on the wrong track. To make the abolition of the Slave Trade an accomplished and an accepted fact, slaves should have been rendered useless in the plantations, and therefore worthless in the market. If population was to find its level, and labor its price, this could be done as well by importing freemen as bondmen. We know for certain that there are certain quarters of the globe so overpopulated that the exportation of laborers would be beneficial to all parties, and as we did not wish to put down sugar-growing, but merely slaveholding, there were the quarters where our true resource was to have been found. We do not think the work would have been difficult, if this part of the question had only been handled with the same vigor as was applied to the other. A comparatively small amount of labor will make all the difference between a surplus and a deficiency, and if a supply of this kind had been substituted for that which was so righteously abolished, Brazil might have been now above suspicion, and our West Indies as flourishing as ever.

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN THE LOVE AND SUICIDE AFFAIR IN ROCHESTER—DEATH OF THE LADY.—The young woman Mary, for whom Theodore Marie Ganz committed suicide last week, by throwing himself before a locomotive, died this morning under circumstances which leave no doubt that the tragical end of her lover was the exciting if not the cause of her death. It will be remembered that Ganz committed the rash act on Tuesday morning, and on Wednesday the letters were found explaining the cause of his death, namely, the loss of Mary's love. The lady referred to was Mary Rohr, whose parents reside on North Clinton street, in the sixth ward. She was shown the letters of Ganz, and learned his sad fate on Thursday last. From that moment she was ill, and on Saturday she became seriously sick, requiring the attention of a physician. She continued to fail, and yesterday was much deranged. Last night bleeding was resorted to, but all was in vain, she expired at seven o'clock this morning. The young lady was 21 years of age and of prepossessing appearance. Ganz had fallen violently in love with her and had been rejected. He was a man of peculiar sensibilities, and was little calculated to meet reverses with fortitude. More than once he plotted self-destruction before he accomplished it. The unfortunate girl appears to have been somewhat like him in this particular, although she did not resort to violence. She gave way to regret and self-accusation until she became a maniac and died. It is to be regretted that the course of true love in this case did not run smooth, and thus save from premature graves two worthy young persons.—Rochester Union, 10th inst.

THE COIN WHICH BETRAYED THE SAVIOR.—John S. Dye, gives in his Wall Street Broker, of last week, a fac simile of the coin which Judas Iscariot received for betraying the Savior. The great demand to see the curiosity, since Mr. Dye announced that he had one in his possession, has induced him to have a set of dies made so as to cast a piece the exact fac simile of the original. Any person transmitting twenty-five cents to the publishers, will receive one of the pieces by mail, post-paid.—Exchange.

We know nothing of genuineness of the abovementioned fac simile, but we know of no person more likely to be in possession of the original than John S. Dye.—Cincinnati Gazette.

A CATHOLIC CHURCH BLOWN UP.—The Catholic Church of Coldwater (Mich.) was blown up by incendiaries on Sunday morning last. The Republican says two kegs of powder were used for the purpose, and were placed, one under the middle, and the other under the rear sill. The ruffians were systematic in their arrangements, and successful in their execution, as the building is an entire wreck, and will be a total loss to the society.

JUST PUBLISHED,

THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print. By Doctor WM. THOMSON. Price twelve cents. Upon the receipt of four postage stamps the book shall be forwarded free from observation, to any address in the United States or Canadas. As it contains important private information for both sexes; the author received, through the Post Office during the last month from various parts of the country and city, over three thousand orders, for as many copies, evidently in the hand writing of females, but fictitiously signed, for the purpose of preserving their incognito. It is no "catch penny," but abounds in startling and interesting truths, extracted from the author's diary and case books, the result of thirty year's practice in all climates, in the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, which gave him better opportunities than those possessed by the Roman Catholic Confessor, to look behind the curtain.

Address Dr. Wm. Thomson, Box 72, Chicago, Illinois.

Those afflicted with Spermatorrhea (seminal emissions), or any private disease, before applying to any physician for medical assistance, should obtain a copy of the Unfortunate's Guide, and thus be enabled to escape the disastrous consequences of quackery.

Dr. Thomson's Grand Anatomical Museum adjoins his office. Wednesday from 12 M. to 4 P. M., reserved for Ladies. Patients admitted free of Charge. Boys and children never admitted.

DR. HUBBELL'S
MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
69 RANDOLPH STREET, 69
Opposite the Revere Hotel.

TO YOUNG MEN AND OTHERS.—NERVOUS Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the sexual system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequence of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Distaste for Society, Gloomy Presentiments, pain and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness or vicious dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relation, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, costiveness, piles, dyspepsia, &c.

To the truth of this, more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any latent or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, impotence, insanity &c., it almost surely eventually developed into activity, and is actually the most frequent cause of those maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of the sexes. Still if taken in time this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.

Dr. Hubbell has for many years past been consulted upon so many and distressing cases of this vice, that his attention has been necessarily much directed to its treatment and cure, and he is happy to add has, beyond his most sanguine expectations, matured a treatment at once safe and certain, and free from painful operations or nauseous medicines.

Think and reflect upon the fact, that an inexperienced physician is worse than none at all, and that it requires constant attention to private diseases to acquire a competent knowledge of their treatment. It is far better to go at once to those who understand the disease in all its minutia.

Having been long established in this city, he can appeal to all for a certificate of success, which should have great weight with the inexperienced.

Persons living at a distance, by giving a plain statement of their cases, will be attended to punctually, and medicine forwarded by express to all parts of the United States.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.

THIS INSTITUTION HAS BEEN IN SUCCESSFUL operation for ten years. It is designed to meet the wants of those parents who wish to secure for their sons all the advantages for mental education that can be anywhere furnished, without losing that attention to health, and that parental supervision and government which the young require.

THE MENTAL TRAINING includes a thorough English, Mathematical, and Scientific Education, in reference to a complete preparation for any business that does not require the instruction of the Law, Medical, or Theological school; a course of Classical Studies, minute, thorough, and as extended as may be desired; a course of Modern Languages, under native teachers; Ethical and Mental and Political Science.

THE MORAL EDUCATION is secured by the personal influence of the teachers; by a division of the school into families of moderate size, of which the Vice-Principals are the heads; and by graduated, disciplinary measures; by a regular course of study of the Bible, of Moral Science, and of the evidences of Natural and Revealed Religion.

THE PHYSICAL TRAINING consists of a prescribed course of exercises in a large and well furnished gymnasium, under the direction of an accomplished gymnast; and of such an amount of military drills, under full organization as an infantry corps with competent officers and instructors, as will secure bodily vigor, habits of command and obedience, and a kind and degree of knowledge which may be essential to the full discharge of the duties of a citizen. Care is also taken to encourage wholesome sports, bathing and rowing; and opportunities are furnished for occasional pedestrian excursions into the country. Students are admitted at any time of the year.

Catalogues, with full information, will be furnished on application to the Principal.

60,000 Acres of Valuable Lands for Sale!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS 60,000 ACRES of very choice farming lands for sale, in the North-Western part of Illinois; all of which lie in the very best portions of the State, and are among the most valuable lands in the State for agricultural purposes, being accommodated with both Railroad and navigable water facilities, and well supplied with most excellent timber, good water, beautiful stone, both lime and free, which is easily worked, and almost all of which lands are underlaid with Stone Coal, which is very accessible.

To such as wish such property, I can say that they need not fear going into the wilderness to find these lands, as they lie in a region of country well inhabited by intelligent, enterprising people, with churches and school privileges.

I will sell these lands on such terms that no one should object. The title, I will have ample abstracts of, so that no fears need be entertained on that account. There is perhaps no other list of lands of the same amount in Illinois, that comprises the many advantages of these lands. There are none of them so remote from either Railroad or navigable rivers, but that a farmer could leave his farm and go to either railroad or water town and back with a wagon in the same day. For richness of soil and picturesque beauty of the country, it is unsurpassed.

The country is as healthy as any region of the United States, as the inhabitants' faces plainly show.

I have also a large number of city lots in Fulton City, Dixon, and a few in Cairo or sale. Fulton City has grown, in the last four years, from a population of about 100 to at present about 3,000. There is now established a daily line of new and first-class packet steamers from Fulton to St. Paul, which will add to its business and growth very much.

A particular description of each quarter section of land will be furnished to persons wishing to purchase, which will enable them to go directly to such tracts as may suit their respective tastes.

E. & J. HOLMES'
IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRTS.

WE take pleasure in again introducing our improved seamless skirt, as being the most acceptable and reliable article in market; we are aware that many new styles called improvements are before the public, such as India Rubber, Gutta Percha, Rattan, &c., all of which we have been called for—but cannot recommend them, as we have experimented with and tested them all—(most of them two years since,) submitting them to the judgment of competent ladies to decide upon their merits, and have found them from actual use, to be in all important respects, decidedly inferior to our properly prepared Whalebone, which has been in use the past two years, and for which has been expressed from all parts of the country entire satisfaction; and we have the more positive evidence from our own large retail trade, amounting to many dozens per day.

Therefore, we confidently recommend our Skirts to be the least objectionable of anything in use; possessing many advantages found in no other Skirt the most important of which is our series of elastic Cords at the bottom, made from the only material that can be used, that will recover its place when pressed out of shape, will not roll nor curl, is not affected by heat or cold, and can be washed without injury. These cords at the bottom, instead of bones, which are exceeding awkward and inconvenient, with our own prepared bones above and a fabric manufactured by ourselves expressly for our goods, in our estimation and the estimation of thousands who have used them, produce a Skirt, and the only Skirt equally adapted to the parlor, the street, and the crowd, giving a proper, graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress; light, pliable, easily adjusted and in every respect a complete article. The public are cautioned against all imitations or other goods called seamless Skirts. Every genuine article is stamped, E. & J. Holmes' Improved Seamless Whalebone Skirt, and are for sale at 79 Market street, Philadelphia, and in the principal Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston.

Lake and Canal Navigation.
NEW OSWEGO LINE.

WESTERN MERCHANTS AND FORwarders of Property and Merchandise to and from the West and North-west, are respectfully notified that the proprietor of the above line has effected such arrangements as will enable him to offer superior inducements to shippers of every description of Merchandise and Freight from New York to all ports on Lake Ontario and the Upper Lakes, with quicker dispatch and at as advantageous rates as any other line.

Upon the resumption of navigation, a line of A 1 Lake Boats, of the largest class, will be put on to transport freight from New York to Oswego without transhipment, and there connect with propellers and sail vessels on the Lakes. No property will be warehoused till it has reached its destination, as a vessel will always be in readiness at Oswego so that Freight may be transferred directly from the canal boats on their arrival.

The Proprietor will at all times endeavor to attain the quickest possible dispatch, and parties who have heretofore had their goods shoved away for weeks in a warehouse or depot in transitu, will find that such unwarrantable delays will be entirely avoided by the

AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY FOR THE FEVER AND AGUE,
And the Various Forms of
BILLIOUS DISEASES,
Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever and DUMB AGUE,
Having their origin in Malaria of very fertile or marshy districts.

PREPARED BY DR. S. SAWYER, AND sold by SAWYER, PAIGE & CO., Druggists and Chemists, 74 Lake street, Chicago.

This remedy is prepared exclusively from vegetable substances and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects are those of a cathartic and tonic, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics, serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not restore the diseased [illegible] or other organs, implicated on which the chill and fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where physicians cannot be readily consulted), which contains all the qualities needed in the [illegible] form of these maladies.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of the medicine from persons of respectability, have been given to the proprietors—but he deems it unnecessary to publish them, as he prefers to have the medicine recommend itself solely by its merits.
